

Student Presentation Scoring Guide and Rubric

For each criteria give a score of 0-4, multiply by the weight for that criteria, and write the weighted score for that criteria in the rightmost box under the row for that criteria. For every score you assign you must give a clear and specific explanation in the "Justification / Comments" line. On the last page, multiply the sum of the weighted scores by the Degree of Difficulty weight and write the resulting score.

Score	4	3	2	1	0	Weight	Possible points
Evaluation Criteria
Introduction - Effectiveness of speaker's brief initial discussion of the content, scope, and flow of the presentation	Introduction makes perfectly clear the salient points and scope of the talk	A bit too brief (or too long), or missing an important item	Contains some relevant information but not nearly enough	Poorly worded or confusing introduction	No introduction	2	8
Justification / Comments
Logical Clarity - Speaker's effectiveness in presenting ideas without (uncorrected) logical flaws	No logical errors	One or two logical errors	Three logical errors	Four logical errors	Five or more logical errors	3	12
Justification / Comments

Evaluation Criteria
Spatial Organization - Speaker's blackboard technique and neatness (slides minimize chances of scoring poorly here)	Excellent use of space, obvious boundaries between ideas, clear and legible handwriting	One or two instances of cramming, poor handwriting, or unclear boundaries	Three or four such instances	Five such instances	More than five such instances	3	12
Justification / Comments
Relative Pace - The appropriateness of the pace of your talk for your audience	Ideal pace for the class, pausing when appropriate, moving quickly through trivial material	Infrequent inappropriate pace, but speaker checks audience often for apparent grasp	Several instances of inappropriate pace, but speaker still check your audience several times	Pace typically but not always inappropriate	Consistently too fast or too slow	2	8

Evaluation Criteria
Creativity / Paraphrasing - The degree to which the speaker's talk was presented in her or his own style	Obviously you owned the presentation	Well-paraphrased with a few unnecessary exceptions	Some creativity, but you seem quite bound to the source material	Little creativity or paraphrasing	Presentation recited from the source material	2	8
Justification / Comments
Graphics - The relevance and clarity of the graphics (if speaker used, or should have used, any)	Graphics are clear, presented at appropriate times, and each reinforces or explains an idea in your talk	Good graphics, but some room for improvement in clarity, neatness, or relevance	Significant room for improvement	Poorly presented or some missing graphics	Confusing graphics, or no graphics when there should have been	2	8
