PRIVATE FEEDBACK FOR FORUM ACTIVITIES

You can always leave public feedback for your students by posting a reply to their posts in a discussion forum. But did you know that you can leave private feedback for your students on graded forum assignments as well?

Here's how:

1. Create a graded forum activity (using ratings) first
2. Click "Grades" in your course sidebar to see the Grader Report
3. Turn editing on
4. Click the editing icon next to a student's grade for the forum
5. Enter feedback in the space provided and save your changes

That's it, you're all done! You can hover over the editing icon to see if you've already left feedback for a particular student or you can also check their feedback by viewing a student's user report.
