

college of liberal arts and sciences

LAS Home

About the College

Divisions

Business & Economics
 Computer Science
 Creative Arts
 Humanities
 Natural Science and Mathematics
 Psychology
 Social Science

Message from the Dean

Happenings in LAS

Current

Previous

Additional activity showcases can be found at the respective divisional and departmental Web sites.

Useful Resources

Academic Showcase
 Degree Programs in LAS
 Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society
 OHSU Nursing at WOU
 WOU Honors Program

OHSU School of Nursing's New Campus at WOU

The OHSU nursing program on the WOU campus offers students the opportunity to obtain their R.N. license while giving them the necessary leadership, education and clinical experience to prepare them for future opportunities within the nursing profession.

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences is home to over 200 faculty and staff housed in seven divisions. The college offers 33 majors, over 50 minors, and select graduate programs. Approximately three-fourths of the university's graduates complete a major within the college. LAS provides the central learning experience for all undergraduate students at Western. The faculty are committed to engaging students in academic discovery and intellectual growth via the core curriculum, major and minor baccalaureate curricula, and mastery in select graduate programs.

Our Goals

- Engage students in scholarly pursuits that benefit their preparation for life-long learning and societal engagement.
- Provide an environment where students may develop disciplinary competencies necessary for their chosen career fields.
- Provide opportunities for faculty-student mentoring and out-of-classroom learning opportunities

Two new master's degrees offered

Masters in Management and Information Systems

A joint program offered by the business & economics division and the computer science division. Contact Dr. Hamid Bahari-Kashani, Business, 503-838-8354, or Dr. John Marsaglia, Computer Science, 503-838-8991

Master of Arts in History

Promotes a community of scholars dedicated to excellence in teaching, professional and community service, and research. Contact Dr. David Doellinger, History, 503-838-8254.

Happenings in the college
Model UN team participates in World MUN

Undergraduates, Brandon Harris, Jeff Sawyer, Max Beach, Emiko Hori, Christina Palmrose, Melissa Lee and Michael Maeda, and faculty adviser, Dr. Mary Pettenger, associate professor of political science, returned from a successful engagement at the 2009 World Model United Nations conference in The Hague, The Netherlands, March 22-27. The WOU team members represented positions at the conference for Uganda. Close to 2,500 delegates, representing 275 universities from 53 countries, participated... \(continue to story\)

More happenings in LAS

college of liberal arts and sciences

LAS Home

About the College Divisions

Business & Economics
Computer Science
Creative Arts
Humanities
Natural Science and Mathematics
Psychology
Social Science

Message from the Dean

Happenings in LAS

Current
Previous

Additional activity showcases can be found at the respective divisional and departmental Web sites.

Useful Resources

Academic Showcase
Degree Programs in LAS
Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society
OHSU Nursing at WOU
WOU Honors Program

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences is home to over 200 faculty and staff housed in seven divisions. The college offers 33 majors, over 50 minors, and select graduate programs. Approximately three-fourths of the university's graduates complete a major within the college.

Our Mission

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences provides the central learning experience for all undergraduate students at Western Oregon University. The faculty are committed to engaging students in academic discovery and intellectual growth via the core curriculum, major and minor baccalaureate curricula, and mastery in select graduate programs. The College is a participant in the Association of American Colleges and Universities' Liberal Education & America's Promise (LEAP) initiative on general education for students.

Our Goals

- Engage students in scholarly pursuits that benefit their preparation for life-long learning and societal engagement.
- Provide an environment where students may develop disciplinary competencies necessary for their chosen career fields.
- Provide opportunities for faculty-student mentoring and out-of-classroom learning opportunities

Happenings in the college

Model UN team participates in World MUN

Undergraduates, Brandon Harris, Jeff Sawyer, Max Beach, Emiko Hori, Christina Palmrose, Melissa Lee and Michael Maeda, and faculty adviser, Dr. Mary Pettenger, associate professor of political science, returned from a successful engagement at the 2009 World Model United Nations conference in The Hague, The Netherlands, March 22-27. The WOU team members represented positions at the conference for Uganda. Close to 2,500 delegates, representing 275 universities from 53 countries, participated... \(continue to story\)

Two new master's degrees offered

Masters in Management and Information Systems

The Master of Science in Management and Information Systems (MIS) is a joint program offered by the business & economics division and the computer science division. Contact Dr. Hamid Bahari-Kashani, Business, at 503-838-8354 or Dr. John Marsaglia, Computer Science, at 503-838-8991

Master of Arts in History

The OUS Board has approved the introduction of a Master of Arts in History at WOU. The MA Program in History promotes a community of scholars dedicated to excellence in teaching, professional and community service, and research. Contact Dr. David Doellinger, History, at 503-838-8254.

Please see graduate studies office for application process for all WOU graduate programs.

college of liberal arts and sciences

LAS Home

About the College Divisions

Business & Economics
Computer Science
Creative Arts
Humanities
Natural Science and Mathematics
Psychology
Social Science

Message from the Dean

Happenings in LAS

Current
Previous

Additional activity showcases can be found at the respective divisional and departmental Web sites.

Useful Resources

Academic Showcase
Degree Programs in LAS
Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society
OHSU Nursing at WOU
WOU Honors Program

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences is home to over 200 faculty and staff housed in seven divisions. The college offers 33 majors, over 50 minors, and select graduate programs. Approximately three-fourths of the university's graduates complete a major within the college.

Our Mission

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences provides the central learning experience for all undergraduate students at Western Oregon University. The faculty are committed to engaging students in academic discovery and intellectual growth via the core curriculum, major and minor baccalaureate curricula, and mastery in select graduate programs. The College is a participant in the Association of American Colleges and Universities' Liberal Education & America's Promise (LEAP) initiative on general education for students.

Our Goals

- Engage students in scholarly pursuits that benefit their preparation for life-long learning and societal engagement.
- Provide an environment where students may develop disciplinary competencies necessary for their chosen career fields.
- Provide opportunities for faculty-student mentoring and out-of-classroom learning opportunities

Happenings in the college

Model UN team participates in World MUN

Undergraduates, Brandon Harris, Jeff Sawyer, Max Beach, Emiko Hori, Christina Palmrose, Melissa Lee and Michael Maeda, and faculty adviser, Dr. Mary Pettenger, associate professor of political science, returned from a successful engagement at the 2009 World Model United Nations conference in The Hague, The Netherlands, March 22-27. The WOU team members represented positions at the conference for Uganda. Close to 2,500 delegates, representing 275 universities from 53 countries, participated...

\(continue to story\)

Two new master's degrees offered

Masters in Management and Information Systems

The Master of Science in Management and Information Systems (MIS) is a joint program offered by the business & economics division and the computer science division. Contact Dr. Hamid Bahari-Kashani, Business, at 503-838-8354 or Dr. John Marsaglia, Computer Science, at 503-838-8991

Master of Arts in History

The OUS Board has approved the introduction of a Master of Arts in History at WOU. The MA Program in History promotes a community of scholars dedicated to excellence in teaching, professional and community service, and research. Contact Dr. David Doellinger, History, at 503-838-8254.

Please see graduate studies office for application process for all WOU graduate programs.

college of liberal arts and sciences

LAS Home

About the College Divisions

Business & Economics
Computer Science
Creative Arts
Humanities
Natural Science and Mathematics
Psychology
Social Science

Message from the Dean

Happenings in LAS

Current

Previous

Additional activity showcases can be found at the respective divisional and departmental Web sites.

Useful Resources

Academic Showcase
Degree Programs in LAS
Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society
OHSU Nursing at WOU
WOU Honors Program

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences is home to over 200 faculty and staff housed in seven divisions. The college offers 33 majors, over 50 minors, and select graduate programs. Approximately three-fourths of the university's graduates complete a major within the college.

Our Mission

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences provides the central learning experience for all undergraduate students at Western Oregon University. The faculty are committed to engaging students in academic discovery and intellectual growth via the core curriculum, major and minor baccalaureate curricula, and mastery in select graduate programs. The College is a participant in the Association of American Colleges and Universities' Liberal Education & America's Promise (LEAP) initiative on general education for students.

Our Goals

- Engage students in scholarly pursuits that benefit their preparation for life-long learning and societal engagement.
- Provide an environment where students may develop disciplinary competencies necessary for their chosen career fields.
- Provide opportunities for faculty-student mentoring and out-of-classroom learning opportunities

Happenings in the college

Model UN team participates in World MUN

Undergraduates, Brandon Harris, Jeff Sawyer, Max Beach, Emiko Hori, Christina Palmrose, Melissa Lee and Michael Maeda, and faculty adviser, Dr. Mary Pettenger, associate professor of political science, returned from a successful engagement at the 2009 World Model United Nations conference in The Hague, The Netherlands, March 22-27. The WOU team members represented positions at the conference for Uganda. Close to 2,500 delegates, representing 275 universities from 53 countries, participated... \(continue to story\)

Two new master's degrees offered

Masters in Management and Information Systems

The Master of Science in Management and Information Systems (MIS) is a joint program offered by the business & economics division and the computer science division. Contact Dr. Hamid Bahari-Kashani, Business, at 503-838-8354 or Dr. John Marsaglia, Computer Science, at 503-838-8991

Master of Arts in History

The OUS Board has approved the introduction of a Master of Arts in History at WOU. The MA Program in History promotes a community of scholars dedicated to excellence in teaching, professional and community service and research. Contact Dr. David Doellinger, History, at 503-838-8254.

Please see graduate studies office for application process for all WOU graduate programs.