Independence House is a classic 1895 Italianate on a quiet corner of the historic river town of Independence, Ore. Walk to our reviving Main Street, where you'll find fine art and antiques, great food, or a peaceful stroll by the river. Take in a movie or spend a summer evening at a riverside concert.

Independence House is nestled in the wine center of Oregon's picturesque Willamette Valley, and is a short drive from Salem, Corvallis and McMinnville. The ocean beaches, Mount Hood,

Portland and Silver Falls State Park are about an hour's drive away. And if a lazy drive is more to your liking, the Willamette Valley offers wonderful views in all seasons.

You'll find....

- Guest rooms that encourage lazy snuggling and a great night's sleep
- Three-course served breakfast, and afternoon or evening light snacks
- Generous shared bathroom with clawfoot tub/shower
- Luxury bathrobes, hair dryers for each guest
- In-room TV/VCR
- Common areas to gather with friends and family
- Movie videos, family games, books and magazines
- Innkeeper assistance for enjoying the area
- Wireless internet to keep you connected
- "Porch time" for day dreaming, wine sipping, parade and fireworks watching, conversation with new friends, and always your option for an outdoor breakfast.

Events and happenings

Independence and the mid-Willamette Valley offer lots to enjoy, and the area attracts people with a wide variety of interests.

You'll find boating, hiking, biking and wildlife viewing throughout the area. The Willamette River and the new river park downtown offer a boat launch; and summer through fall, it's the site for weekly concerts and outdoor movies as well as a series of festivals and celebrations. Thousands come to Independence to see the July 4th fireworks over the river.

Antiquers can start right in town and find ample shopping in less than an hour's drive in any direction. The region's wine production is gaining attention and accolades. Within a 25-mile radius of Independence, visitors can sample wines at 27 wineries...with many more a few miles further.

My hope is that Independence House Bed & Breakfast evokes a slower pace, when a cup of tea and a fresh-baked muffin could keep the world at bay.

Each room has its own décor. The morning and afternoon sun, a troublesome red-boarded wall, and a yearning for yellow all helped the final personality emerge. I tried to imagine life in these rooms at the turn of the last century, then added some modern comforts.
