

Affordable luxury birth suites

Our Facilities

Bella Vie is located in a beautiful 160 year old home-turned-waterbirth center in the country, of Yamhill County, Oregon. We are located less than 15 minutes from Salem, McMinnville, Amity, and Dayton, and are only a little further from Newberg and Dundee. In addition, we are only 12 miles from our level-three backup hospital.

You will find that the serene setting and options in birth suites are very worth the drive! Our center is surrounded by farmland and vineyards, boasting a beautiful orchard of it's very own. Perfect for some leisurely family time to pick cherries, apples, or pears after your appointments. It seems to be the perfect, romantic setting to be able to slow down enough to focus on having a baby.

Inside you will find gorgeous furnishings and modern comforts. A fireplace, comfy seats, and a toy area welcome you into the center, where many mamas enjoy a cup of tea and good company while waiting for their appointments. During your visits, you can feel the hominess of our birth suites, with their queen beds, couches, and generous tubs, built specifically for the comfort of laboring and birthing women.

Our spacious birth rooms, offer room to spread out and relax. You will be using your birth room for pregnancy as well, which makes most women feel more at home, while in labor. Of course, our medical equipment is all there too, just mindfully tucked away.

The first precious days with your new baby at Bella Vie resemble a bed and breakfast, with one of our loving postpartum staff anticipating all of your needs, likely before you get a chance to ask. Call for a free tour of this haven in the country and start planning for the beautiful birth of your baby today!

Two midwives will care for you in pregnancy, and one of them will be on-call for your birth. They will be available for your urgent concerns and questions, 24 hours per day. If a problem arises or you think you might be starting labor, you don't need to worry about disturbing your midwives; our on-call midwives are ready for your phone calls!

The midwives of Bella Vie focus on preventative care, so that in many cases problems don't even have a chance to start. We love for our clients to be as healthy as possible during their pregnancies, and we find this helps them have the good birth they desire. Pregnancy has special needs, but it isn't usually a medical emergency, and we treat it as a normal part of life.

Our experienced midwives are educated in normal birth, but are also trained in recognizing when there are problems that need to be addressed. In some cases our midwives might recommend that you see a higher level provider or specialist, such as an obstetrician or perinatologist (high-risk OB), pediatrician, or a naturopathic physician.

Well Woman Care includes:

- Free pre-conception consultations
- Regular Pap tests and exams
- Breast exams
- Birth control options

Here at Bella Vie, we believe that pregnancy is a normal life occurrence, rather than an illness; and birth is a natural process, not a medical emergency. In most situations and especially with good health, preventative care, and thorough monitoring, birth can be a powerful rite of passage for you, and a safe and gentle journey for your baby.

At Bella Vie Gentle Birth Center we offer professional, full-service midwifery care for the prenatal, birth, and postpartum period. Giving birth is one of the most memorable and intimate experiences you will ever have. This is why choosing your provider and the place where you will give birth is such an important decision.

Bella Vie Gentle Birth Center is staffed by caring, professional and knowledgeable women, who understand the needs and desires of expectant families. In our care, you will share two midwives, having the opportunity to get to know them both well during the course of your pregnancy. Your midwives understand the importance of continuity of care. One of them will be available for you 24-hours a day for any urgent questions or needs that may arise during your pregnancy and to share in your excitement when labor begins.

Our Mission

At Bella Vie Gentle Birth Center it is our mission is to educate, support, and empower parents to be active participants during their pregnancy, birth, and postpartum. We believe that birth is a normal, healthy process and that both women and babies have the inherent ability to do so naturally.

Using new information and age-old wisdom, our midwives offer clients the perfect balance of traditional comfort and modern technology. We recognize this transition as a unique and sacred process and assist families in having the birthing experience they desire; creating an environment where you can feel secure, nurtured, and that your personal preferences are respected. It is our commitment to support women in birthing safely with dignity and confidence.

The first time your baby lays eyes on this world, let them be on you.
